

FERRY BLACKBURN, in his 1926 Speedster, took first prize in the Model T Classification during the Art City Days Old

Car Show held Saturday. The Springville competition is the first of the season for vintage car buggs in the state.

Glade Dalton Family of Lehi Wins Top Honors at Car Show

SPRINGVILLE — The Glade Dalton family of Lehi won three of the top prizes at the Art City Days Old Car Show Saturday afternoon. The Daltons took Judges' Choice honors for the most outstanding car in the show; first place in the Pre-1915 category; and first place honors in the costume awards.

Their 1906 red and black Cadillac, no doubt about it, was a beautiful vehicle. Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and their children were all dressed in costume authentic to the era.

Jack Roberts, president of Utah Valley Old Car Club, took second place in the pre-1915 class with his 1914 Buck Touring car.

Other winners and classifications were: Model T — first, Ferry Blackburn, 1926 Speedster; second, John Quist, 1926 Model T; Wayne Atkinson, 1922 Pie Wagon. Vintage 1916 to 1932 — first, Clark DeWolf, 1929

Studebaker Sedan; second, Bob Uselac, 1925 Passenger Custom Suburban Cadillac; third, Bret Garn, 1930 Dodge Coupe. Model A. Ford — first, Bud Wernz, 1929 Model A four-door; second, John Grow, 1930 "A" Coupe; third, Virg Gardner, 1929 Model A Tudor.

Others were Vintage 1932 to 1942 — first, Gene Miller, 1939 Ford four-door sedan; second, Scott Bringhurst, 1934 Ford five-window coupe; third Sheldon J. Monk, 1941 Ford Sedan Coupe. Special Interest first, Ray Miller, 1962 Ford T Bird; second, Richard Rouse, 1956 Lincoln Premier; third, Dave England, 1947 Buick Convertible. Costume award — second, Dave Barclay family; third, Wayne Atkinson family.

Trophies were presented to all winners by Miss Springville, Leslee Bird, and her attendants, Penny Crowton and Judy Calder.

Art City Days chairman Fred J. Bonney presented the costume award trophies.
